MACOMB, IL – Illinois State Police forwards investigation to McDonough County State’s Attorney

With a commitment to transparency, the Macomb Police Department is providing this update.

Chief of Police Jeff Hamer has been advised that the Illinois State Police (ISP) has concluded their investigation of the March 16th Officer Involved Shooting (OIS) and forwarded the matter to the McDonough County State’s Attorney for review. We thank ISP for their careful attention and diligence in conducting the investigation.

The ISP investigation will be examined by the State’s Attorney’s (SA) Office for consideration of any further action which may include additional investigation. Per Department policy, Chief Hamer will conduct an internal investigation concerning adherence to department policy and procedure in the incident. The Macomb Police Department will continue to provide updates as information becomes available.
